

Chef – The Royal Logistic Corps Professional Memberships – Institute of Hospitality

Background

The Institute of Hospitality is the professional body for managers and aspiring managers working and studying in the hospitality, leisure and tourism industry. We have members working in every sector of the industry and in over 100 countries around the world. Established in 1938, we are managed as an educational charity and our resources include publications, management guides and research, covering both our industry and other management disciplines.

Purpose

We aim to support all our members at every stage of their career and help them reach their full potential. Every part of our broad industry is supported; Managers, students, educators and suppliers.

Benefits

Some of the key members benefits;

- Webinars – presentations on a range of compelling industry topics, providing practical advice designed to help you and your business.
- Mentoring – career growth and development for both experienced and new hospitality managers.
- HQ – the quarterly membership magazine, via the IoH Connect app.
- Knowledge Centre – an extensive and bespoke online collection of hospitality resources including best practice management guides, e-Journals, e-Books & audio books.
- HR Support and helpline – Free HR legal advice from our partners Davenport Solicitors.

Membership

All RLC Chefs are all able to access the Institute of Hospitality MOD membership scheme. Launched in 2020, the scheme gives all military chefs the opportunity to purchase 2 years introductory Affiliate membership at a greatly reduced rate and reductions on the higher assessed grades.

For more information please use the following link:

<https://www.instituteofhospitality.org/ministry-of-defence-personnel-special-membership-offer/>